Attractions

Albany offers attractions sure to match your interests, whether you enjoy nature and the outdoors, history and heritage, sports or the arts. Let the Flint RiverQuarium amaze you, or get close to native and exotic animals at the zoo at Chehaw. Explore Albany's heritage, from the legacy of the railroads to Albany's key role in the Civil Rights Movement. As the cultural center of Southwest Georgia, Albany supports a symphony orchestra, live theater ensemble, chorale, and ballet company in addition to an impressive museum of art.

Albany is a sportsman's paradise, and with our moderate climate, you can enjoy the outdoors year-round. The Kinchafoonee and Muckalee Creeks flow into the Flint River at Lake Chehaw, a 1,400-acre lake great for boating and fishing. Golfers will find a wealth of challenging courses in Albany and surrounding areas. Hunting plantations abound and marksmen from around the world aim for Albany during hunting season.

Albany Civil Rights Institute

326 W. WHITNEY AVE., 229-432-1698

In 1961, crowds gathered at Mount Zion Baptist Church to hear Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and other civil rights leaders inspire listeners to challenge the systematic oppression of African Americans. Old Mount Zion, built in 1906, is the most important artifact in the new Albany Civil Rights Institute's collections. Since ACRI's opening in 2008, visitors have learned about the long Southwest Georgia Movement that stretches back to slavery and reaches right up to today. Come hear the power of music in the movement and see what happened to ordinary people in extraordinary times.

Hours: Tuesday-Saturday 10am-4pm

Fee: $6 per adult, $5 students and seniors 65+

Albany Museum of Art

311 MEADOWLARK DR., 229-439-8499, ALBANYMUSEUM.COM

The Albany Museum of Art has three exhibition galleries that host quarterly shows, bringing nationally and internationally known artists' works to Southwest Georgia. Many exhibiting artists make appearances at the AMA, which also has adult and children programming throughout the year. Located adjacent to Albany State University West Campus just off Gillionville Road, the AMA's impressive collection includes 19th and 20th century American and European art, a substantial collection of sub-Saharan African art. It is accredited by the American Alliance of Museums.

Museum Hours: Tuesday-Friday 10am-5pm, Saturdays Noon-5pm

Fee: Admission is free, but donations are welcome

Albany Welcome Center

THE BRIDGE HOUSE, 112 N. FRONT ST., 229-317-4760,
1-866-750-0840, VISITALBANYGA.COM

The restored circa 1857 Historic Bridge House, now home to the Albany Convention and Visitors Bureau, was built by former slave and master bridge builder Horace King. Stop by for information and brochures, to watch the film "From the Heart of Southwest Georgia," and pick up Albany souvenirs.

Hours: Monday-Friday 9am-5pm; Saturday 10am-4pm; Sunday 12pm-4pm; closed New Year's Day, Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter.

All American Fun Park

2608 N. SLAPPEY BLVD. 229-436-8362,
ALLAMERICANFUNPARK.COM

There is something for the entire family at the All American Fun Park. Knock down some pins at our new bowling center, test your skills on two 18-hole miniature golf courses or dodge your pursuer in a fast game of laser tag. Enjoy the largest game room in Southwest Georgia and ride the blaster boats, go-carts and virtual roller coaster.

Hours: Monday-Thursday 11am-9pm; Friday-Saturday 11am-Midnight, Sunday 1pm-9pm; closed Easter and Christmas

101 PINE AVE., 229-639-2650,
877-GOFLINT, 229-639-2650,
FLINTRIVERQUARIUM.COM

The Flint RiverQuarium follows the Flint River's amazing 350-mile journey to the Gulf of Mexico, and the 175,000 gallon Blue Hole is one of only a few open-air aquariums in the world. Get a unique look at Southwest Georgia's mysterious underwater world with more than 100 species of fish, alligators, turtles and other aquatic animals. The Cypress Pond Aviary is home to more than 30 birds indigenous to the Flint River watershed. Next door is the Imagination Theater, the area's only large screen format theater. Hours and Fees: Call or visit our website for hours and fees

Pretoria Fields Collective

120 PINE AVE., 229-518-1770,
PRETORIAFIELDS.COM

A collective of brewers and farmers working together to produce slow beer with ingredients sown in the Georgia soil. Tour the brewery and hear their story of locals becoming brew masters. On tap you will find their four core beers, as well as seasonally released limited editions that are available only in their tasting room. If you can't decide on just one, they offer flights of beers as well. Hours: Monday-Wednesday 12pm-7pm, Thursday-Saturday 12pm-9pm, Sunday 1pm-5pm

Radium Springs Gardens

RADIUM SPRINGS RD., 229-430-6120,
1-866-750-0840

One of Georgia's Seven Natural Wonders, Radium Springs Gardens pumps 70,000 gallons per minute of clear, 68-degree water from an underground cave. Walk through a courtyard where the former Radium Springs Casino once stood, enjoy foliage-draped hillocks, crystal clear waters and flora both indigenous and exotic. The park features a restored terrace, new sidewalks, a casino garden and gazebos. Hours: Tuesday-Saturday 9am-5pm; Sunday 1pm-5pm Fees: Free admission

Ray Charles Plaza

FRONT ST., 229-317-4760 OR
1-866-750-0840, VISITABANYGA.COM

Holding court in the center of the Plaza that runs along the Flint River is a life-size sculpture of the pioneering soul musician, seated at a Baby Grand piano which rests on a rotating pedestal. While Ray Charles' beloved melodies play at timed intervals, water flows over the pedestal and spills into a reflecting pool at its base. Grab a piano key bench and enjoy the "concert."

RiverFront Park

112 FRONT ST., 229-317-4760 OR
1-866-750-0840, VISITALBANYGA.COM

Find Your Rhythm

VISIT THE CITY WHERE VOICES
ELEVATED A MOVEMENT

During the Albany Movement, thousands of citizens attracted nationwide attention in the first mass movement in the modern civil rights era with the goal of desegregation of an entire community. When you visit the Albany Civil Rights Movement Museum, you'll hear the stories, feel the songs and see the people who helped change the course of history. And gave momentum to a movement.
